██████████ has an active USSS warrant for threats to the President and interstate threats.

██████████ first came to USSS attention in December 2020 when it was reported he created a GoFundMe fundraiser titled, "Let's Kill Trump." The fundraiser's description claimed President Trump was an "enemy to Democracy and to Humanity..." because "he is instigating Trump supporters" to conduct violence, which was treason. He wrote, "Sharpshooters ready. Legal team ready. Foreign shooters ready." Additional threatening social media posts were discovered in which ██████████ threatened President Trump and geo-tagged his location at the White House between October 2020 and December 2020. In October 2020, ██████████ posted a photograph of two assault rifles with a photograph of First Lady Trump. The caption read, "I make grave for husband." He also geo-tagged himself at the USSS when he posted an news article regarding security for President-elect Biden and claimed USSS actions would be recorded.

In January 2021, ██████████ continued to post threatening comments on social media toward President Trump and geo-tagged his location at the White House. He also threatened to "knock out" any special agent who "violated his personal space" and geo-tagged the FBI.

Local police reported ██████████ claimed to have mental illness. ██████████ was interviewed by the FBI in 2016 due to "erratic, eccentric behavior."

██████████ has a criminal history since 2006 with arrests for battery on person, trespassing, and open container.

[REDACTED] may be HIV positive.

On 12/30/20, [REDACTED] visited the White House and requested President Trump deliver a letter to Russia and China regarding a plan by the US to use COVID-19 as a "terrorism weapon" against their governments. [REDACTED] claimed he worked for the FBI and CIA. He stated he had no intentions of returning to Kentucky and planned on staying near the Russian Embassy.

[REDACTED] first came to USSS attention in March 2018 when he visited the White House and requested to deliver several letters to President Trump. [REDACTED] believed the FBI infected him with HIV/AIDS and claimed the government kidnapped his children.

Between May 2018 and March 2019, [REDACTED] returned to the White House several times. He claimed to have been harassed by the FBI and placed on a watch list because he researched how to build a bomb. [REDACTED] stated he experienced auditory hallucinations instructing him to burn down buildings and commit suicide.

In April 2019, [REDACTED] emailed the CIA and claimed he set fires for attention, including one at the National Archives on 04/25/19, because the FBI ignored him and he was tired of being tortured. In May 2019, [REDACTED] visited the White House and reiterated he set the fires. The ATF and MPD responded and [REDACTED] was charged with arson and destruction of property.

[REDACTED] ex-wife advised he once chased her with a screwdriver because he wanted to remove a bugging device implanted in her ear.

[REDACTED] has a criminal history since 2005 including arrests for disorderly conduct, resisting arrest, drug offenses, arson, and other various nonviolent offenses. [REDACTED] has a non-extraditable warrant out of Kentucky for violating a court order.
